BUTTERFLIES

Its that time of year again! Toward the end of the month of April, each of the groups will begin to hatch butterflies in their classrooms. The plan is for each class to watch the different stages of development, from larva to butterfly. When all of the butterflies are hatched and become strong enough, the entire school will meet outside and release the butterflies into the natural setting. It will be a colorful sight to watch as they flutter away to find a home.

We hope that the frigid temperatures are behind us so we can spend time outdoors observing signs of spring. Some of the goals we will focus on are: exploring the natural processes of growing, using scientific tools as props in play, changing and adapting to the environment, appreciating and respecting the work of others, and learning to tolerate a variety of sensory input. We will have a busy month!

Happy April!
